

The current Wisconsin no call list has worked extremely well and should not be altered. Please do not let these businesses invade our homes and privacy again. Do not let the banks and others have the opportunity to harrass us.